Grand Finale Rules

Section 10.01

General Finale Rules

- (a) A Driver may bring a car designated entirely for finale purposes, or use their race car for the finale
- (b) The car must conform to the equipment rules, be teched in and have a 4" x 4" Letter F on the sign board to designate it as a finale car only.
- (c) All cars in the finale will display a flag in a conspicuous area that is visible to all drivers.
- (d) When a car is declared "dead" either by the choice of the driver or the judge, the flag is to be removed by the driver. Once removed, you may not move your car until the conclusion of the finale. Moving your vehicle after its declared "dead" could be grounds for disqualification from the event and/or loss of pay or points of that nights racing.
- (e) Any car with a flag is fair game whether it is moving or not.
- (f) Any direction of travel, at any speed within the designated area is considered fair play.
- (g) A real effort must be made to avoid impact with the driver's door. Black flags will be given if the judges believe the drivers door hit to be deliberate.
- (h) If a finale is stopped twice for you for any reason you will be removed from your vehicle, the vehicle will remain as an active car until time has elapsed.
- (i) All cars will be observed and timed with a stopwatch. Anyone not contacting an active competitor's vehicle with sufficient force or speed to cause the other vehicle to visibly move within 90 seconds will be declared "dead". Obvious "Sand Bagging" will be a cause for a black flag.
- (j) Any person who waves off a hit will be considered "dead"
- (k) No Started power contact. If caught using starter power only, you will lose any paying place for the event.
- (l) No intentional "Pin to Win" is allowed.
- (m) The winner of the event is the last vehicle to deliver an aggressive blow to an active competitor.
- (n) The four Vehicles remaining at the end of a finale may be required to undergo another tech inspection at the discretion of judges or officials, before awards are disbursed.
- (o) You must stay within the designated space on the track. Do not intentionally leave the designated area. Leaving the area may be grounds for a black flag.
- (p) If you are instructed to exit a vehicle by an official for safety concerns, your time will continue when the finale resumes, regardless if your vehicle is occupied or not.
